Keres Consulting Awarded Two Department of Homeland Security Contracts to Provide Real Property Services

New Mexico-based company wins more than $2.3 million in contracts from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – January 26, 2009 – Keres Consulting, Inc. today announced it was recently awarded two independent contracts by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to provide Real Property support and services. Based in Albuquerque, Keres Consulting, Inc. is a Native American-owned general management consulting firm with specialized expertise in asset management, energy, the environment and technology.

In the first of two contracts, Keres Consulting was awarded a one-year, $644,934 assignment to develop a Department-wide Real Property Performance Manual and to conduct and complete a Comprehensive Federal Real Property Profile (FRPP) Audit Report. In this highly competitive procurement, Keres Consulting successfully developed and submitted the strongest combined technical and price proposals.

Separately, Keres Consulting was awarded a $1.67 million major support contract by DHS to provide Real Property and Information Technology Support Services to DHS Headquarters. The period of performance is one year with four option years.

“Keres Consulting is pleased to further our relationship with the Department of Homeland Security with the implementation of these two projects,” said Timothy Chavez, President and CEO. “Sound Real Property asset management not only increases the efficiency of the federal government – but also helps better utilize federal property to ensure efficient use of our tax dollars.”
